About the workshop

With his bestselling book, “Getting the Love You Want” Harville Hendrix PhD created a set of tools for transforming relationships. This educational workshop is based on Dr Hendrix’s work.

You and your partner together will be provided with an experience that will take your understanding of connection to a new level. Develop new insights into how you chose your partner, learn new communication skills, move forward from long-standing conflicts and deepen the connection between you. Fall in love all over again whether you are in the early days of romance, or you are deep in question about your relationship.

The workshop is designed to offer a confidential and relaxed environment for learning and growth. You will work individually and with your partner.

You will learn how to:

- successfully express your own desires
- create romance, fun and intimacy
- experience the value of connection
- reduce conflicts
